

Becomes Vice President Of the Heller-Deltah Co.

Lawrence Corb

Lawrence Corb has been elected vice president of the Heller-Deltah Company, importers of cultured pearls and manufacturers of costume jewelry. Ernest Heller, president, said that Mr. Corb, who joined the company last Monday, will be in charge of sales and promotion of cultured pearls. He was formerly vice president of the Imperial Pearl Syndicate, Chicago importers and distributors of cultured pearls.

The New York Times

Copyright © The New York Times
Originally published August 30, 1951